

Coastal Quest Building Capacity for Fire Resilient Communities

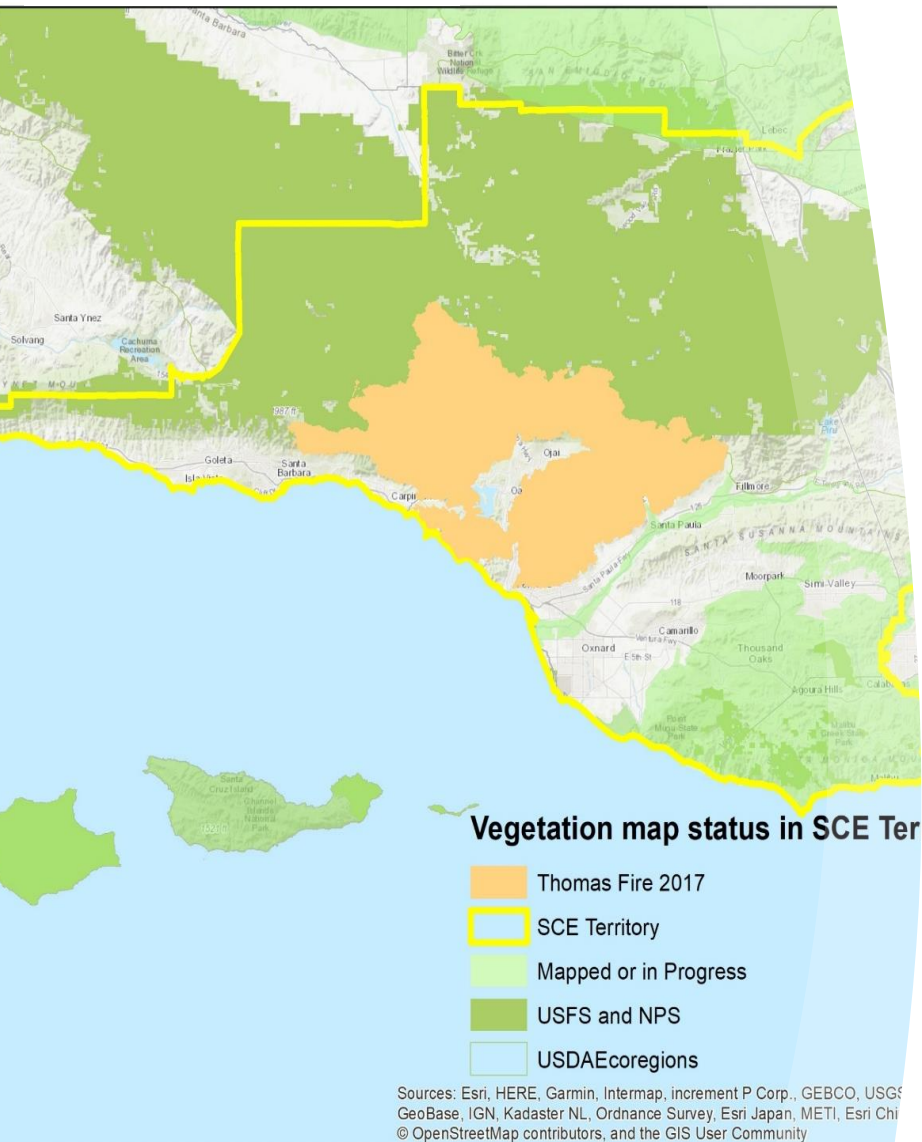

Ventura County Resilience

Provide Capacity: Support local government agencies, community-based organizations in and serving disadvantaged communities with:

- accessing data, information, and utilizing tools to assess and/or reduce climate and specifically fire risk; and,
- developing skills in identifying funding and preparing grant applications.

Financing: Help secure financing to support local government and community resilience priorities, e.g. help draft winning proposals.

Thank you

Contact us:

Tegan@coastal-quest.org

Lily.Verdone@coastal-quest.org

Our mission is to create lasting solutions to protect, sustain, reduce threats to, and enhance the natural and cultural heritage of our coastal environments for present and future generations